MASTER COMPANY.

Valuable Volume by Mr. Selby

on the History of the Capital City.--Of Special Interest in Fairfield.

"Memorabilia," by Mr. Julian A. Selby, is a unique and most entertaining publication. Mr. Selby's Memorabilia is a salmagundi of hundreds of anecdotes of men and affairs. During his life of more than seventy years in Columbia, few events or incidents connected with the careers of prominent citizens or visitors to his native city have escaped his recollection. These reminiscences the author has put into readable shape and given to the world without any effort at chronological arrangement. As he expresses it, he has put them down "just as they happened to be brought to mind, without actual connection, but in anecdotal salmagundi shape." The effect is pleasing. The reader imagines himself listening to the fireside stories of a genial old grandfather in the story-telling mood, who has lived widely and well, on whose memory the panorama of life has printed indelible pictures of the virtues and follies of men and left him kindly disposed to his fellows. Many anecdotes relating to families in Columbia and elsewhere in the State, and that would be read with zest and curiosity, are charitably kept under the seal of his silence, for fear of causing pain and opening old wounds. There is enough, however, for amusement, instruction or entertainment, under the following chapters: "The Old Columbia Theatre," "Anecdotes About Good People," "South Carolina College Affairs," "Truth Stranger than Fiction," "Eccentric Characters," "Mexican Volunteers," "Tragic Affairs," "Short Sketches," "Grave Matters," "Old Time Dancing," "The Earthquake," "How the Radicals were Driven Out," "The Late Unpleasantness," "Venerable Subjects," "Columbia--Old and New, Odds and Ends." In each of these chapters we find from five to twenty anecdotes told in an original and chatty style. The book concludes with the story of "The Sack and Destruction of Columbia," written by Gilmore Sims for The Phoenix. A few copies of this most interesting volume on sale at the News and Herald office for only $1.50 each.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c. at McMaster Co., Obeur Drug Co. and John H. McMaster & Co., druggists.

Watching for Returns.

The price of farming lands has gone much higher all over the State. Now, let's see how this class of property will be returned in January. It is a fact, which no one can successfully deny, that banks, cotton and oil mills, other manufacturing enterprises, and town property, both real and personal, bear an unjust burden in the matter of taxation. Why should farming lands, which are worth $50 or more the acre, be returned at $5 the acre, and other property be assessed at 60 per cent of its value? This rate of assessment does not obtain in all instances, but we unhesitatingly declare that farming lands as a rule are assessed lower than any other form of property. We are not arguing for higher assessments, but we do want to see more equitable and just assessments. Either raise farming lands or reduce other property. "Equal justice to all men" and classes of property should be done.--Barnesberg Herald.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz.: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton, of Market, Texas, says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by Obeur Drug Co.

A Business Statement.

The many kind things that have been said about the big issue of the News and Herald of last week would make it possible for us to do a good deal of boasting at this time, if it were not for the fact that we are as busy as busy can be preparing for even better things in the future. The truth is that the issue was much larger than we had planned for it to be, and it was with the greatest difficulty that we were able to take care of the flood of advertisements that came in upon us. In the great rush many things happened quite differently from what we had expected, and we are not at all un-mindful of a number of defects that crept in. Handling an edition of 1,700 copies of 20 pages is no small task, and we are pleased to know that our subscribers and advertisers appreciate this extra effort on our part. Our next big issue will be brought out next week, and there will be 2,000 copies of it, so that we may be able to supply the great demand that was made upon us last week for extra copies, for it is a matter of fact that we were not near able to get around. Of course every wide-awake merchant will appreciate what this big circulation will mean in the way of reaching the people, and will not fail to have his advertisement therein in good style. But to be sure of getting in and getting a good display, all copy will have to be in just as soon as possible. The bigger the ad, the better the pay; the sooner the copy is in the better the display.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicines until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the back dust like fine stones, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Sold by McMaster Co.

Wedding Presents

Holiday Presents

It is not too early to consider holiday presents. Buying presents always seems a problem, but it need not this year. Our buyer has just returned from the northern markets, and a more select stock cannot be found anywhere. Everything new in the jewelry line as well as the regular styles are here. Our handsome Brooches and Waist Pins of heavy 14k gold, beautifully enamelled in delicate autumn leaf tints, will please the most fastidious. Our ladies here are enthusiastic over their beauty. Gold Neck Beads are growing more popular every day, and to be in style you should have a Gold Bead Necklace. We have them in several sizes of beads, small, medium and large, also in double strands. Prices in gold filled $2.75 to $5.50; in solid gold, $8.00 to $20.00. Gold Bracelets are again in vogue. The most popular is the Netherole, a plain, substantial bracelet, in style similar to an overgrown wedding ring. Some slip over the hand and others have joints and clasps, so as to open for putting on; made in this way they fit more snugly around the wrist. The Signet Bracelet, with place for initials or monogram, is also a popular style. Price in gold filled, $2.50 to $5.00; in solid gold, $5.00 to $20.00.

We haven't enough space to give a description of each new article, but any and everything pretty in Watches, Brooches, Rings, Hat Pins and all kinds of jewelry, either gold or gold filled, are to be found here. Prices reasonable.

One of the latest and most beautiful wares is the Kelva. The Kelva Jewel Case has a body of bisque, in soft, neutral colors, and dainty flowers hand painted, mounted in gold bronze, inside lined with silk. Each piece is a beauty in itself. A nicer Christmas present could not be found, and now, while we are in the midst of the bride season, they make very desirable presents. Something new and useful, and that is what is wanted. They come in Vases, Jewel Cases, Puff Boxes, Cigar Jars, etc.

If you can't come, write for our illustrated catalogue of staple goods, viz.: Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, etc.

Letters of Administration

State of South Carolina,
County of Fairfield.

By D. A. Broom, Esq., Probate Judge: Whereas, Ulysses G. DesPortes hath made suit to me to grant him letters of administration of the estate and effects of Saling S. Wolfe, deceased:

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Saling S. Wolfe, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Fairfield County House, South Carolina, on the 30th day of December next, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand, this 18th day of November, A. D. 1905.

11-22-2t D. A. BROOM,
Judge of Probate.

Trespass Notice.

All persons are forbidden to enter upon the lands owned or controlled by me in Fairfield County, near the stations of Dawkins and Strother. I find that I must stop the passing through my pastures because some people leave the gates open and expose my cattle to be killed on the railroad, which is fenced off. Moreover, I must stop all hunting in order to get my places stocked with game--birds, squirrels, rabbits and possums.

11-8-4m JOHN J. McMAHAN.

Notice of Sale.

ON SALE DAY IN DECEMBER next, I will sell before the Court House door in Winnsboro, S. C., all the personal estate of Alexander Willford, deceased, consisting of stock, vehicles, harness, agricultural implements, office fixtures, etc.

G. W. RAGSDALE,
11-22td Executor.

Trespass Notice.

All persons are warned not to hunt, fish, cut timber, or permit their live stock to come on any part of the land owned or controlled by the undersigned, the places being the Ford Place, the Dove and the Home Place, or any way. All trespassers will be prosecuted.
